

Palmerton R. D. Youngster Found In Woods

By Don Carlson
LITTLE GAP—Three-year-old Harry Eckhart of this Palmerton RD 1 area—missing for more than eight hours yesterday—was found shortly before midnight lying in leaves under a fallen tree nearly a mile from his home.

The youngster, found by a Boy Scout who joined hundreds of searchers, was hustled off to Palmerton Hospital for medical examination, but relatives reported "he seemed all right."

The small boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eckhart. According to an aunt, an estimated 500 persons were involved in the almost six-hour long massive hunt.

State Police at Lehighton, who dispatched two radio equipped patrol cars to the vicinity when they were notified the boy was missing at about 6:10 p. m., and the aunt gave the following account:

The youngster was with his father in a field of a second farm owned by the parent. Shortly after 3 p. m., the youngster apparently wandered off in an attempt to find his way home alone.

The father, believing the boy had arrived home safely, was unaware young Harry had become lost. When Eckhart returned home some time later, he learned the boy had not returned.

A quick search by parents revealed the youth was not in the immediate area between the home and the field from which he had wandered.

State Police were notified and other agencies subsequently launched the hunt. Within a short span of time area residents and others swelled the manhunt's number.

Among those agencies were this area's Civil Defense unit under the direction of Nelson Norwood, Senior Boy Scout (Explorers), and the State Police.

An ambulance was hastened to the scene by a nearby fire company, and an area unit of the Civil Air Patrol promised an adequate number of men and aircraft.

The latter unit was expected to be pressed into action early this morning, had the boy not been found.

At an early hour last night, it was reported that two bloodhounds were enroute from Norristown, Pa.

As the search progressed during the night hours, it was noted there were streams and other hazards in the general area in which young Harry might have wandered near.

According to the aunt, he was found at about 11:45 p. m. by Boy Scout Marshall Schaefer of Bowmanstown. The Scout discovered young Harry lying in leaves in a dense wooded area. The flashlight beam struck the youngster's eyes, the aunt related, and he climbed to his feet, only to lay down and curl up in the leaves a moment later.

A shout by the Scout brought other searchers to the site quickly, and he was carried to the awaiting ambulance. The aunt believed the youngster to be all right, but added "He may have caught a cold, but that we don't know yet."

Young Eckhart was admitted to the Palmerton Hospital dispensary and was released after being treated for scratches on the thighs and legs.

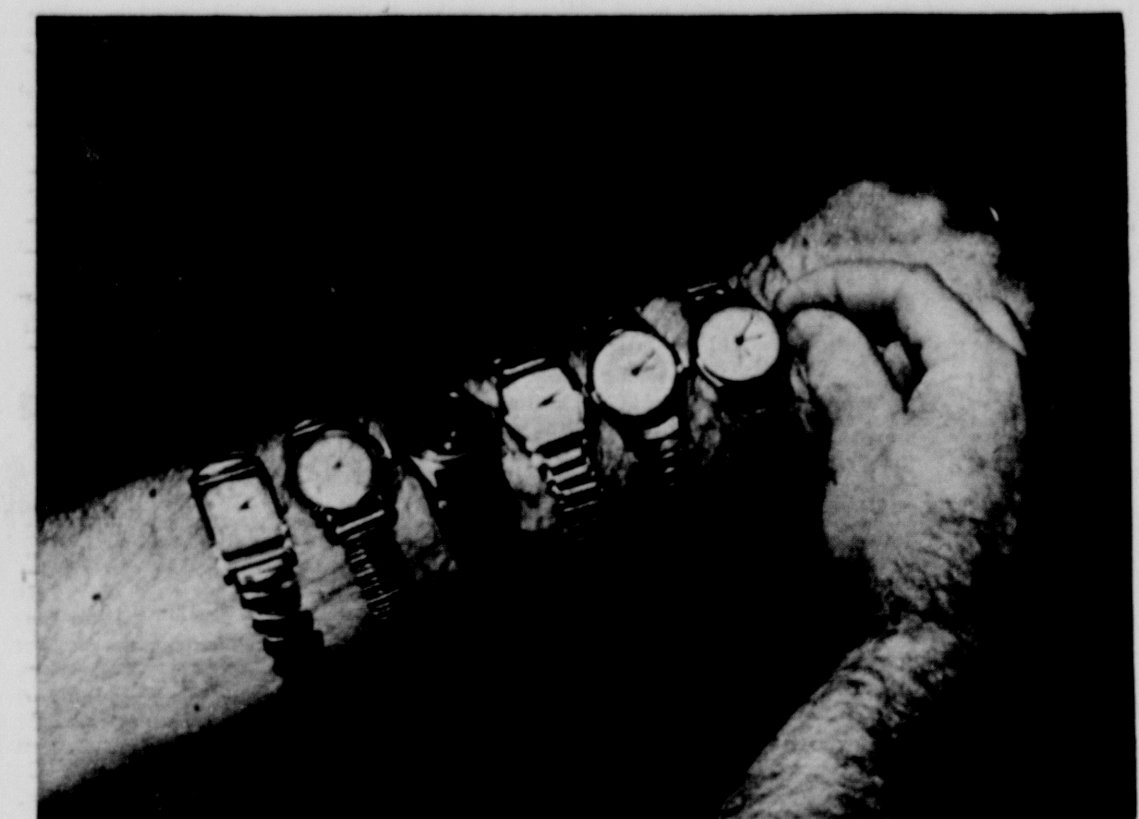

Hospital aides said that the boy was somewhat "frightened" but seemed to escape the ordeal with only slight shock.

HANDS OF TIME—If anyone were to walk casually down the street with an arm load of watches such as this, the citizenry might believe the person was in need of mental treatment. Or, they might conclude he was a thief. In this instance, however, the photo was posed just to remind area residents the clock must be moved ahead an hour for the advent of Daylight Saving Time at 2 a. m. tomorrow.

Daylight Saving Time Ticks Into Local Area

ARRIVING right along with the early morning hours tomorrow will be the annual advent of Daylight Saving Time. Official time of arrival is 2 a. m.

For most it means the loss of an hour of sleep which can't be technically recovered until next Fall. For all it means setting the clocks ahead one hour just before calling it a day, Saturday night.

For some of the bus traveling residents of the area, this year's conversion to the hours of daylight also holds something new. Both Interstate companies serving Stroudsburg will operate on the adjusted time.

Tucker Admits To Unwise Move In Accepting Gifts

SCRANTON (AP)—Former Army Col. Charles S. Tucker testified yesterday that it was unwise for him to accept gifts from contractors on an Army job.

Tucker, now retired, was resident engineer during construction of the 33 million dollar signal corps depot at nearby Tobyhanna.

Second Time
He is on trial a second time in U. S. District Court charged with conspiracy to defraud the government by accepting the gifts. The first trial last month ended in a deadlocked jury.

Cheryl Begins New Life As Ward Of Grandmother

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Cheryl Crane started a new life with her grandmother yesterday in a Beverly Hills mansion vacated by her mother, movie actress Lana Turner.

It is about four blocks from the star's previously rented house where 14-year-old Cheryl fatally stabbed Lana's lover three weeks ago. The girl said he had threatened her mother.

A county Probation Department case worker said of Cheryl's two months with her grandmother, deceased Thursday by a judge: "We'll try to make it as relaxed and normal and average a situation for the child as we possibly can."

Soviet Deputy Makes Pitch To West

BONN, Germany (AP)—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan made a strong pitch last night to the forces opposed to arming West German troops with atomic weapons.

He declared that if the Bonn republic would renounce atomic weapons, the Soviet Union would never—even in the event of war with the West—drop atomic bombs on West Germany.

Peaceful Relations
The issue of arming West German troops with atomic weapons is a burning political issue in West Germany. The opposition Socialists are bitterly fighting such a step.

Mikoyan also told West Germany to quit showing hatred toward the Soviet Union and to work to bring about friendly and peaceful relations between the peoples of the two countries.

Lana's visits are restricted to one a week. The court similarly restricts Cheryl's father, Steve Crane, second of Miss Turner's four ex-husbands.

Cheryl and her grandmother spent their first evening in their new home watching television.

Superior Court Judge Allen T. Lynch, sitting in Juvenile Court at nearby Santa Monica, gave Lana's mother two months' temporary custody of Cheryl.

The closed hearing, as expected, made definite the teen-ager will be charged and tried as an adult for murder. A coroner's jury last week returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

Juveniles don't have to report to probation officers.

Yugoslav Officials Blast Khrushchev

LJUBLJANA, Yugoslavia (AP)—A high ranking Yugoslav Communist politician member disclosed last night Soviet Boss Nikita Khrushchev has been principal target of the rash of strong criticism here for Moscow's policies.

The disclosure came during an argument at a cocktail party between Svetozar Vukamovic, who ranks about fourth in the Yugoslav party hierarchy, and the director of the Italian Communist newspaper L'Unita, Alfredo Reichlin.

Reichlin mentioned that anti-Yugoslav accusations detailed by Vice President Alexander Rankovic in a bitter speech to the Yugoslav Communist Congress here Wednesday did not appear in the Soviet theoretical journal Kommunist when it listed Tito's sins against world communism.

Indication
"No," replied Vukamovic, "Rankovic did not answer Communist. Other comrades did. Rankovic replied to nobody else but Nikita Khrushchev, who a year ago in Czechoslovakia said these things about Yugoslavia's Communists and repeated them again after his return from Hungary recently, in a speech in Moscow."

The purported Khrushchev remarks which irritated the Yugoslav vice president pictured the Yugoslavs as sitting on two chairs at once, bowing before the imperialists and taking tainted goods from them, an oblique reference to U. S. economic aid to the Tito regime.

There has been some indication here of a desire for conciliation with the Russian Communists, but the Yugoslav leaders at the same time stood firm on President Tito's terms for an understanding.

The tone of the Yugoslav Communist Party Congress was moderated as Tito's Foreign Minister Koca Popovic and veteran Communist Nikola Kovacevic extended an olive branch in the worst Soviet-Yugoslav party crisis in four years.

Popovic called on Moscow to draw experience from the "present phase of disagreeing," saying such a course would stimulate more cooperation between Communist countries.

Railroad agents gave the following changes in schedule—to be effective at 2 a. m. tomorrow:

A seven-day a week run into Hoboken will be inaugurated at 8:45 a. m. The daily run is new, agents noted.

The noon train Sunday—to Hoboken—will be taken off.

The "milk train" westbound to Binghamton at 10:06 a. m. will also be taken off Sundays, as will the 3:01 a. m. westbound train.

The 6:44 p. m. westbound train will run only to Binghamton on Sundays instead of Buffalo as it does the balance of the week.

The 6:23 a. m. eastbound train to Hoboken will end service on Saturdays and Sundays.

The 3:55 a. m. eastbound train to Hoboken will end service on Sundays and Mondays.

All times used above are daylight saving.

Forensics Open In Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—This capital city became the music center of Pennsylvania with thousands of teenage students competing for honors at the 27th annual Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League Competition yesterday.

High school students from across the commonwealth vied for top ratings on virtually every instrument except the bag pipe. The events ranged from the tuba competition to the piccolo finals. Youngsters also competed in solo and combination voice events.

Some 4,000 youngsters, representing 108 Pennsylvania high schools will perform before the competition, sponsored by the University of Pittsburgh, ends Saturday with big band and orchestra events.

Piano Competition
In the piano competition, which had the greatest number of entries in any solo instrument group, seven teenagers collected superior ratings out of 12 in the event.

Students are rated on the basis of superior, excellent, good, fair and below average. The system gives all youngsters the chance to be a winner in the various events.

The only event of the three-day competition which names a single winner is the debating team eliminations. Preliminary debating opened yesterday to decide contestants in the finals today.

East Stroudsburg High School's Band departs at 6 a. m. today for Harrisburg.

Crowley Target Of Blast

HARRISBURG (AP)—Auditor Gen. Charles C. Smith yesterday said James H. Crowley, $7,500-a-year chairman of the state Athletic Commission and his wife received free care at Scranton State Hospital.

He said a dozen other state or local officials or their relatives received similar care at the institution without paying for it as described the situation as "shocking."

Hospital To Open New Section

By Leonard Randolph
ON MONDAY, General Hospital of Monroe County will have six more beds, a new nursing station and an emergency "recovery" room.

All of it was made possible by a grant from Ford Foundation. The grant, totaling $59,900, was given to the local hospital two years ago.

The six new beds will be in three new rooms. All of the improvements are contained in the area formerly occupied by the second floor solarium at the hospital.

Harry Smith, hospital superintendent, noted yesterday that the solarium could not be used in winter months. It was seldom used at other times except to set up additional beds.

Total cost of constructing and equipping the new facilities is about $10,000. Numerous other hospital im-

24 New Models Auto Show In Stroudsburg Today

TWELVE members of the Monroe County Auto Dealers Assn. today will display a total of 24 new American model cars at an Auto Show to be held between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Site for the event will be along Seventh St. between Main and Courthouse Square. Representatives of each agency will be on hand to point out the features of the respective model and to make available printed information concerning the various makes.

The event, members note, is primarily to stimulate buying of all types of commodities in the Stroudsburg area. The show is also in conjunction with the nation-wide "You Auto Buy Now" automobile campaign.

The promotion drive will continue throughout the week, ending next Saturday, a spokesman said.

Among the members participating today with models on display are: A. A. Lauffer, Dodge and Plymouth; Courtland Motors, Rambler and Willys; E. M. Rinehart, International Trucks; Haynes Motors, Ford and Edsel; H. G. Tucker, Chevrolet; Miek Motors, Dodge and Plymouth; Jolley's, Used Cars; Mikels Motors, Cadillac and Oldsmobile; Pocono Auto Co., Packard and Studebaker; Scheller and Kitchen, DeSoto and Plymouth; Stroudsburg Garage, Pontiac; and Welch Buick, Buick.

63 Pages Contained In Document

A MASSIVE collection of maps and specifications for the eastern end of the Stroudsburg Thruway was filed yesterday at Monroe County Court House.

Filing of the papers means that land to be used for the Thruway route from Delaware Water Gap to Brodheads Creek (East Stroudsburg) is legally condemned.

Papers and maps were recorded yesterday, according to Kathryn Bush, deputy register and recorder for the County.

There were 63 pages filed in the total collection, Miss Bush said.

Last week at a meeting with Monroe County Commissioners, a Highways Department spokesman said that between 20 and 25 properties will be taken by the Thruway route in this first section.

Opening Date

Bids on construction of this phase are to be opened on May 9 by the Department. The State has said it hopes to begin construction of the route in May or early June.

The Thruway will serve as Keystone Shortway. This 290-mile route will connect Stroudsburg and Sharon in an almost straight line across the State.

It is one of the largest and most ambitious highway-building projects ever undertaken by the Commonwealth. It will be constructed on a 90-percent participation with Federal funds and will be part of the U. S. interstate highway network.

Filing of the maps and specifications is one of the final steps taken prior to opening of bids and awarding of contracts for the job.

Construction

Bids for the construction job will be accepted until 11 a. m. on May 9. The current phase of the project calls for reconstruction of 3.1 miles of divided highway of reinforced concrete, 24 feet wide on each side of a concrete or earth divisor.

Also included in specifications are two alternate superstructure bridges.

Construction of the bridges, including one over lines of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad has been approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

Navy Changes Deadline For Vanguard

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Technical difficulties forced the Navy last night to postpone until next week its attempt to launch a new Vanguard rocket with a 20-inch satellite. The nature of the difficulties was not disclosed. It was the second postponement in less than 24 hours.

The three-stage rocket awaiting launching is the last of seven test vehicles in the Vanguard program.

Sphere

It also is the first to contain a 2 1/2-pound sphere for possible service as a new satellite, should the new Vanguard rocket attain orbital altitude, speed and direction.

The rocket had been scheduled for launching some time after 9 p. m. Thursday, but was called off at 1 a. m.

The Naval Research Laboratory has announced there will be about one Vanguard launching a month for the next few months.

NOBODY MADE A NICKEL

Too many pressing responsibilities in the Lord's work. The congregation couldn't afford to have its church painted.

But painted it was!

That was a glorious Saturday—no picnic or ball games, just hours of hard work. And what with the paint supplied at cost by a local dealer, and the brushes loaned by the very painter who might have hoped for the contract—nobody made a nickel!

But the remarkable thing is that nobody in town thought all this remarkable...

You know Christianity has had a deep influence on the life of a community when we begin to take for granted the zeal and sacrifice of Christian neighbors. The next step is to add our strength and faith to theirs in the worship and work of the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Attack On Public Interest

Hearings were held this week before the Senate Commerce Committee on a bill introduced by Sen. William Langer (R-N.D.) prohibiting all alcohol beverage advertising in interstate commerce.

Because the measure would, in effect, abridge the freedom of the press, the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. went on record before the Magnuson committee as strenuously opposed to the Langer proposal.

Cranston Williams, general manager of the association, advised the committee that ANPA and the 825 members it represents believes it should be legal to advertise any product or service it is legal to sell so long as the advertising is truthful.

Importation, manufacture, sale and advertising of alcoholic beverages was made legal Dec. 5, 1933 when the 21st Amendment to the Constitution became effective, it was pointed out by Mr. Williams, and various states since that time have exercised the local state authority given them to regulate alcoholic beverage sales and advertising within their borders.

ANPA further declared that the will of the people was expressed in repeal of the 18th Amendment and that the Langer Bill (S. 582) seeks to change what the people have already decided.

"So long as it is legal to sell a product or service it should be legal to advertise such product or service, whether it be liquor, beer, groceries, washing machines, automobiles, television programs, or what have you, provided only that the advertising is truthful," Mr. Williams asserted.

The Daily Record, like the ANPA, believes it is contrary to the public interest to stop the free flow of truthful information through advertising. Subject to prohibitions against false and misleading advertising, we believe the public interest in our free society demands dissemination of more information rather than less, and that applies to advertising as well as to news.

The Langer bill is another attack on the civil liberties enjoyed by Americans. If it becomes law the next step could easily be a companion measure banning the advertising of automobiles on the pretext that they kill too many people, prohibiting the advertising of sweets because overuse may lead to obesity or, perhaps, abnormal tooth decay.

What, then, would prevent the enactment of a law to forbid all advertising, whether it be men's suits, women's dresses or what have you? Congress should lose no time in killing the Langer bill on the grounds that it is not in the best interest of the American public.

Opinions Of Other Editors

Cooperation Helps Both

Police agencies are established in a community for one thing—to protect the public which pays their salaries.

They are not asked to pass judgment on what is news or what news should be printed. That is the responsibility of the community newspaper.

Cooperation between the police and the newspaper is essential to providing the public with the highest possible protection. But that cooperation is a two-way street.

How does police and newspaper cooperation pay off? It's sometimes very simple. A prowler in the neighborhood is reported to police. If the report is made available to a police reporter, the item appears in the newspaper.

The main reason for withholding—or deferring publication of police news—most assuredly is when someone's life is at stake. Such sometimes is the case in a kidnapping.

Cooperation. Yes. But not censorship nor withholding news of police reports without justifiable reason. Not favoritism, not official displeasure, not just to show the newspaper, or the reporter on the police beat.—New Castle News.

The Pennsylvania Story

McGonigle Unlimbering

Harrisburg—Erstwhile pretzel king and Republican "organization" gubernatorial hopeful Arthur T. McGonigle apparently has managed to twist loose from a habitual pretzel stance and at long last is breaking into the open. . . . Republican chiefs for perhaps the first time since the current primary campaign got under way, this week were genuinely grinning and smiling with obvious relief.

What has happened no one seems to know exactly—other than the fact that Berks County McGonigle seems to have "hit his stride" at last. . . . For campaign neophyte McGonigle the campaign has been an eye-opener—so much so in fact that aides were beginning to be fearful he never would blossom out. . . . Shedding much of his heretofore taciturn and seemingly reserved air, Candidate McGonigle is beginning to punch with the gusto of a campaign veteran.

The Flowering Mr. Bloom—Little is heard about him during the present campaign but behind the scenes one of the hardest workers in behalf of the GOP organization state is biding and stoutish George Bloom, long time Republican old pol and GOP state chairman.

A 12-hour day is a breather for the Washington County attorney who thinks nothing of calling up aides on the phone in the middle of the night with a campaign thought or idea.

For bachelor Bloom the exclusive job at the moment is to get the organization state over the primary hurdle—even though it entails night work either in the field or at Republican State Headquarters along the river front here in Harrisburg.

One time gubernatorial secretary (under Edward Martin) Bloom knows he has his hands full at the moment—and will need a dozen more hands for the upcoming fall fray against entrenched Democrats if a GOP win is to be on the books in November.

Editor's Mailbox—Glancing over the week's mail to this column (usually ranging from threats and recriminations to threats and recriminations) we were intrigued by a neat two-page mimeographed affair from one Lucian J. Ciletti, of Washington (Pa.) who is seeking the Democratic nomination for Secretary of Internal Affairs.

Penned on the upper left of the first page was the notation: "You'll need this shortly." For Mr. Ciletti's benefit—we're still waiting to find out why we'll "need" his brochure. . . . He has quite a formidable opponent in already Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt who has the Democratic organization endorsement for another term.

Author-veteran-publisher-teacher-civic leader-principal Ciletti headlines his two-page mailing piece: "A Grass-Roots Notice To Pennsylvania Voters!" . . . To 42-year-old "independent" candidate Ciletti we have one suggestion: water those roots madly, son!

Aging Leo The Lion—When 68-year-old Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence some weeks ago emerged as the Democratic kingmaker's choice as the organization gubernatorial candidate, many were the off-hand flip comments and remarks indicating that because of his age his campaign efforts would be watered down affairs.

A look at the record shows that David Leo Lawrence, notwithstanding his tender 68 years has not been waiting for the general election to flex his leg muscles. . . . "Leo the Lion" in the current primary campaign has led his younger puffing colleagues a merry chase about the state in one campaign appearance after another.

Guffed one campaign aide not quite half the age of Leo the Lion: "If he doesn't slow down I'll be bushed before the big campaign ever gets under way this fall. . . . In fact at this rate I won't ever live to be that old!"

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Balance Of Arms

What is called peace is being maintained by a balance of arms. But a balance of arms means a constantly increasing and devastating budgetary rise in costs for all countries. No country on Earth can afford its present budget. No people can afford the taxes they have to pay, even in those countries where tax swindling is fashionable.

The current economic depression in the United States is due to two causes: 1. The psychological mass reaction to the high cost of living and high taxes; 2. The decision of large numbers of consumers to postpone buying of what might be called household capital goods, such as automobiles, refrigerators, electrical gadgets, etc., which are out-priced.

Opposition to a tax cut now—with emphasis on now—is that such a cut will not be sufficient to prime the pump of consumer buying and should it succeed in doing that, it would lead to a runaway inflation. These contradictions are often expressed by the same persons who fail to recognize them as contradictions. The Rockefeller Report on this subject is clear-cut and offers a platform upon which a debate can be held and a decision reached.

Point, one above, I think has been established; point two is still in the realm of doubt and discussion. The reason why this subject cannot be treated lightly is that if an error of judgment is made now, it cannot be corrected in time to avert disaster and will only be known should we be defeated in war.

These then are the problems which arise out of the balance of arms which the principal countries are trying to maintain. Amateurs jump to conclusions.

For instance, those who believe that the push-button war definitely puts an end to infantry, the Navy and the Marine Corps may be right but they cannot prove their case by facts. Every war, since the Berlin Airlift, and the world had not known a day of peace since then, has been a local war, limited in scope, employing conventional weapons.

In the Korean War, for instance, the United States could have employed, but did not, atomic weapons; in the Indo-China wars, no conventional weapons were used; ditto for Israel-Egyptian struggles; ditto for the Hungarian uprising. It would therefore seem to be too early to discard the conventional forces and Russia has not discarded them, although Great Britain has reduced her forces now that there is no Empire to defend.

Once Over As Viewed By Phillips

Walkout at U.N. meeting called at his own request looks as if Russian delegate Sobolev was first man to put his shoes in orbit. Moscow has developed an international "Walknik," and used the United Nations for a launching pad. An astounding fact is that the Soviets, after demanding an urgent hearing and fast action on protest over Arctic flights, took a run-out powder because the world peace organization wanted to be sure it got both.

All indications are that the Russian idea for perfecting a summit conference is to torpedo the cable-car and dynamite mountain paths. Its invitation to the free world was: "Let's have a nice, friendly, summit session, you foul, vicious conspirators!" Nothing in the U.S. airplane flights in the Arctic region was as warlike as Sobolev's flight in the U.N. Security Council. It was the same as if a fellow causing a ruckus in apartment house demanded the immediate meeting on the roof and then shot the elevator men.

Action showed Russia has now developed its friendly aims to a point where it can veto not only free world peace proposals but ITS OWN. It seems to be saying, "We want better understandings and world peace if we have to fight the idea all our lives." Moscow policy is, "If things don't go your own way refuse to play." If its leaders don't get to first base they cancel the game and accuse all the players of plotting to destroy outdoor sport.

It's an elluwa way to run a peace program. And inviting free world leaders to a summit brotherly love meeting, while putting spikes in the chairs, abusing the invited guests and spraying welcome-mats with tear gas is the dizziest performance of the century. Nevertheless, Moscow is turning its own torpedoing of its own complaint into usual propaganda against U.S. and U.N. It demands headlines out of defeat, victory or photo finish.

Mirror of Time — By C. H. WESTBROOK

10 Years Ago — Election — Little interest seems to be taken in the Spring Primary Election because there is a lack of contests.

Anniversary — Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bisbing, Tannersville, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday with a dinner party.

Graduates — Representing local Graduate Sorority of the Y.M.C.A. at state convention in Chambersburg were Mrs. Joan Farry and Mrs. Dorothy Andress, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson.

Birthday — A party was held in honor of Mary Jane McDowell on her 16th birthday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Byrd McDowell.

20 Years Ago — Fires — Five bad forest fires kept Delaware District fire-fighters busy, the one between Skytop and Echo Pond having been set in five places. The biggest fire was located between Henderson's Swamp and Bright Creek. The Forge Cut area of E.S. had a fire that threatened the cemetery.

Candyland — George Anton, of Peekskill, N.Y., has bought the business of Candyland from Mrs. Theodore Dolos.

B.P.W. — The State Federation of Business and Professional Women will hold convention at Buck Hill Falls Inn.

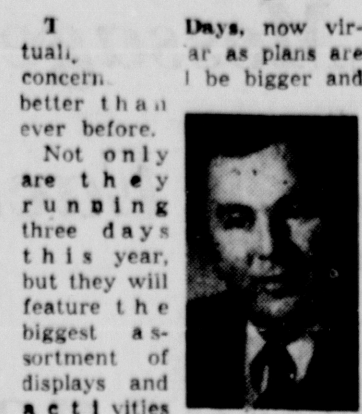

Epworth League — Marvin Burrus, of Jr. H.S. faculty in E.S., is president of Lehigh Valley Epworth League Union and is planning future activities.

Bible Thought — Fear not Abraham: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. Genesis 15:1.

God is just that to all his children.

Signal Corps To Be Feature

The U.S. Army Signal Corps was first used in combat in 1861, when it directed fire for the Union army against a Confederate position on Sewell's Point in 1861.

The Signal Corps was founded in 1860 and has been one of the most active units of our army since that date. Ninety-eight years of progress by the Signal Corps will be exhibited and demonstrated during Tobyhanna Days, May 8, 9 and 10.

John Pyle, band director at Stroud Union High School, is walking on air these days. John is naturally proud of the manner in which the recent Northeast District Band Concert went off at the W. Main St. School.

But, even better I think, was the feeling that John and everyone else connected with the venture had when the 185 students from many schools departed for home.

I'm told that each and everyone of the youngsters was singing the praises of the people in both Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg.

The kids were thrilled to death with the hospitality and kindness displayed by the people here during the three-day visit of the band members.

Many friendships were sealed in this venture.

Ed "Carlito" Lott, who now lives in East Stroudsburg, is a bull fighter as well as a motorcycle racer.

Ed used to live in Texas, right near the bull fighting country of Mexico.

Robert S. Allen Reports . . .

Washington — Russia is renegeing on another international agreement.

This latest flouting of a solemn pledge is the Soviet's deliberate ignoring of the March 11 deadline for the submission of summaries of scientific papers to be presented by nations participating in the Second International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, in Geneva, Sept. 1-13.

The U. S. sent in 900 such abstracts, dealing with a wide range of peaceful nuclear developments. Britain produced several hundred; and a considerable number came from France, Italy, Belgium, Switzerland and other countries.

Russia alone of the 80-odd-member nations of the International Atomic Energy Agency, that will attend the Geneva parley, failed to submit a single summary.

The obvious intent of this hold-out is unmistakable. These abstracts are being circulated among all the conference nations. That make it easy possible for Russia to get a complete fill-in on every scientific presentation which will be made, while maintaining drum-tight secrecy on its plans and pronouncements.

Thus the way is open for the Reds to pull one of their characteristic propaganda coups, with some spectacular claim or maneuver.

This likelihood is strongly indicated in an Atomic Commission report to the Joint Congressional Atomic Committee. In restrained language the commission summarizes

Russia Ignores Pact

This extraordinary situation as follows: "Deadline for submission of abstracts to the United Nations was March 1, and the final papers to be in UN hands by June 1. All the participating nations, except Soviet Russia, honored the March 1 deadline, and submitted their abstracts in accordance with the agreed rules. All nations, except Soviet Russia, are also expected to honor the June 1 deadline for submission of the complete scientific papers.

"The result may well be that the Russians will gain an insight into the papers of other nations, without showing their own hand, and will thus be in a position to exploit the gaps which the Soviet sees in other countries' presentations."

The first world Atomic Conference was held in Geneva in 1955. It was a direct outgrowth of President Eisenhower's historic atomic-for-peace address before the UN General Assembly in December 1953.

Head of the U.S. delegation to this year's parley will be Dr. Isidor Rabi, noted Columbia University scientist, chairman of the President's Scientific Advisory Committee, and member of the NATO Science Council.

Dr. Rabi's still-unnamed selection as head of the five-member delegation to the Geneva meeting is causing much eyebrow raising in congressional and other quarters.

Reason for this backstage buzzing is conjecture over the meaning of the omission of Atomic Commission Chairman Lewis Strauss from any connection with the Geneva Conference. He was chief delegate at the first parley, as well as at all other international atomic gatherings.

Strauss' indicated absence from the September meeting is therefore being viewed as a significant tip-off of his departure from the Atomic Commission when his term expires June 30.

Early this year the one-time New York banker let it be known he had decided not to seek a second term. He told friends his wife "wasn't happy in Washington," and he wanted to retire to the "quiet and peace of private life." But last month Strauss apparently had a change of heart.

Leaders of the Joint Atomic Committee were sounded out on Strauss' chances for Senate approval in the event he was reappointed by the President.

The reaction to those inquiries was strongly hostile. Senators Clinton Anderson (D.N.M.), vice chairman, and Albert Gore (D.Tenn.) bluntly served notice they would do their utmost to block Strauss' confirmation.

Whether this discouraging response was the cause, or some other reason, it now seems set that Strauss will definitely leave the Atomic Commission. That is the interpretation insiders are putting on Dr. Rabi's selection as head of the U.S. delegation to the Geneva parley.

In addition to the five official delegates, this country will also be represented by eight "congressional advisers," five State Department officials, and 150 technical assistants. The latter will include leading U.S. scientists.

They will present the 100 or more American papers which will be delivered orally at the Conference. They will deal with basic science and technology, controlled thermonuclear development, isotopes, and progress in atomic reactors.

Britain is planning to have the largest display at a trade fair during the Conference. The British have leased 64,000 square feet of display space, as against only 32,000 by the U.S. France has applied for 40,000 square feet, and Russia 10,000. Prominent among the displays will be reactors and other nuclear equipment that will be offered for sale.

Try and Stop Me

—by Bennet Cerf

What makes a woman march resolutely into a store to buy something? Margaret Kennedy lists these eight reasons: (1) Because her husband says she can't have it. (2) It will make her look thinner. (3) It comes from Paris. (4) Her neighbors can't afford it. (5) Nobody has one. (6) Everybody has one. (7) It's different, and (8) (most likely) "Because."

It is obvious to me that a little firmness, a little whacking around the house, could put the women on the run. Heavens, suppose we can't catch them! And would we know what to do if we did catch them? The girls say some of us have forgotten. The situation is desperate, gentlemen, and the time has come to threaten massive retaliation.

Pocono Mountains Industries Inc. Selects Official Leaders

Water Main Financing Approved

FIRST meeting of the incorporators of Pocono Mountains Industries Inc., was held yesterday morning.

Officers named were: M. F. Crowe, president; Paul McBride, vice president; J. Horace Strunk, secretary and Walter S. Peeney, treasurer.

Directors, in addition to the four officers, will be: Alex Benninger, M. S. Baldwin and Gilbert Smrz.

Pocono Mountains Industries Inc., has been set up as a non-profit corporation. As such it is eligible for loans and cooperative financing from the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Administration, a State agency.

The PIDA will work only through non-profit corporations. Formerly the local group was known as Monroe County Industries. It was then set up as a business corporation.

Financing of a water main extension for property which will be leased by The Brackett Corp., manufacturers of Drain-o-Windex and other products was approved.

The $14,500 needed for the extension was advanced by Crowe in anticipation of deposit of $9,000 in contributions from two anonymous industrial donors "within the next 10 days," according to Strunk.

Caterpillars Appearing In County

A CAREFUL survey of southern Monroe County reveals that Tent Caterpillars will soon be a problem. In most areas the "webs" are beginning to appear.

The caterpillars are hatching now. They are gathering in the forks of limbs and constructing a large, thick web or tent. The insects will remain within the tent during nights and rainy weather. They do all their feeding in an area outside the tent.

Dark Body

The caterpillars have a dark body with a white stripe down the back. The body has a light coat of long fine hairs. When full grown, they are about two inches long.

Control—Infested trees should be sprayed with DDT 50 percent wettable powder, lead arsenate or 25 percent wettable malathion, within the next few days.

These caterpillars will migrate a considerable distance in search of food.

Fertilizer Important To Lawns

WHAT KIND of fertilizer is right for your lawn?

In recent years the so-called turf grades of fertilizer have been highly successful. These fertilizers contain forms of nitrogen that are slowly available.

This type of fertilization is ideal for use on your lawn, because you can apply them in amounts to supply enough nitrogen for the entire growing season in just one application.

It is the production of urea-form nitrogen that has made it possible to mix high-nitrogen, complete fertilizers that release nitrogen over a period of several months. Another form of fertilization that will supply the necessary nutrients over an extended period of time is the oil meals, especially that of the soybean.

Analysis

Ureatype fertilizers generally have the analysis of 10-5-5, 10-6-4, 12-6-6 or 14-7-7. If they have at least 50 per cent or more of the nitrogen derived from Urea-form nitrogen . . . just one application in April and one in early September should supply nitrogen for uniform turf growth throughout the entire season.

The usual types of organic fertilizers will supply fast abundant vegetative growth. However, in extremely dry Summer weather these force-fed plants are much more susceptible to drought damage.

So, if you are interested in better lawn or turf, why not try some urea-type or oilmeat fertilizer on at least a portion of your lawn this year.

Third Spring Forest Fire Halted In Meisertown Area

AN INVESTIGATION into the cause of a pair of forest fires in the Meisertown section was extended yesterday with the report of a third fire in that vicinity.

District Forester Eugene McNamara said yesterday's woodland blaze was caused by a Pocono Township fireman and was halted before it swept out of a half acre of ground.

Close Radius

The fact that all three fires have occurred within a mile-and-a-half radius in a portion of forest that has never been plagued with such blaze was described by the official as "a little odd . . . and suspicious."

Each of the fires began in spots "rather inaccessible." They were all away from roads and trails, McNamara said.

The second of the trio of forest fires can apparently be removed from suspicion, he remarked, since there are indications it stemmed from a grass and brush fire that spread out of control.

Yet the first and yesterday's blaze are still worthy of a probe by officials, the district forester said. In the continuing investigation, he added, there will be an attempt to determine whether or not they are connected.

State of Officers

Merlin Tucker, president; Richard Werner, first vice president; Floyd Wagner Jr., second vice president; Lawrence Petri, third vice president; Joseph Diorio, secretary; Ernest Dingle, treasurer; Francis Snyder, lion tamer; Angelo Denicola, tall twister; Joseph Romano and Gus Chaffier, directors for two years, and Ott and Alfonso Cesare, directors for one year.

Nominations will be read at the next two meetings and additions will be accepted from the floor before there is a ballot.

Verona, president, directed the session. There were 28 members present. Rev. Dennis conducted opening and closing devotions.

Rev. Charles J. Starzer, pastor of the Roseto Presbyterian Church, served as program chairman and gave the address. Elaborating along the theme of a better life or a better personality, he emphasized three qualities the individual should entertain, namely a sense of humor; honesty, especially with one's self; and a goal or purpose in life.

The club will next convene May 8.

Defending Title Holder In Road-e-o

LAST YEAR'S teenage safe driving road-e-o champion—re-entered for this year's contest today—will face an expected half-a-hundred competitors in his bid to regain the local crown.

Scheduled to reprove his skill behind the wheel is Larry Phillips of Stroudsburg. According to committee spokesmen of the Pocono Mountain Jaycees—the sponsoring organization—he will face about 11 "women drivers."

Nearly all of the Monroe County teenagers who submitted applications to compete in the road-e-o completed written examinations at the schools they attend yesterday.

Written Exams
Jaycee publicity chairman Walt Redel adds: "They all passed the written exams."

The obstacle course for the "behind the wheel test of skill" will be set up this morning in the parking area behind Stroud Union School. The contests will begin at 12:30 p. m.

Approximately six teenagers were unable to complete the written exam yesterday, Redel said and they will be able to take them in the school after the driving test begins.

Among the newest entries are: Ronald Gouger, Paul Singer and Clinton Pugh, all of Stroudsburg.

Scouts At Weygadt

THE DELAWARE Valley Area Council will be host this weekend to over 200 Scouts and Scouters from nine Scout Councils in northeastern Pennsylvania for the annual Pow-Wow of the Order of the Arrow, to be held at Camp Weygadt, Columbia, N. J.

The Order of the Arrow is a national brotherhood of honor campers, and a part of the camping program of the Boy Scouts of America.

Its purpose is to recognize those campers who best exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their daily lives, and by such recognition, cause other campers to conduct themselves in such a manner as to warrant recognition; to develop and maintain camping traditions and spirit; to promote Scout camping; and to crystallize the Scout habit of helpfulness into a life purpose of leadership in cheerful service to others.

Burglars Obtain $600 From Cash Register At East Stroudsburg Elks Home Barroom

AN EARLY morning break into the East Stroudsburg Elks Home on Washington St. yesterday led to a theft of between $500 and $600 from the barroom cash register, according to Borough Police Chief Travis Seese.

The burglary, he said, occurred sometime between the closing hour of 3 a. m. and the time of its discovery at 7:30 a. m. Entry, he added, was gained through a side window.

In addition to the cash, records and other papers were taken from beneath a cash tray of the register, Club Steward Floyd "Red" Lambert said. This made it difficult to determine the exact amount of the theft, Lambert noted.

Most of the cash was made up of dues money, funds from tickets, and bar sales. In all, Lambert said, the money comprised some six or seven items of income.

Discovery of the break was made by Floyd Storm, a janitor. Moments later, Lambert's wife noted a door leading to their second floor apartment in the building had also been jimmied.

The steward expressed a belief the thief or thieves were scared off from their apartment.

Neither his wallet nor his wife's purse—which were near the door—were touched, Lambert said. He theorized the burglary may have been the handiwork of an amateur.

It was also reported that the thief or thieves ignored cigarettes, liquor and other merchandise while in the bar.

Work Slated On PP&L Water Supply

A LARGE party of steel pipeline welders, steel erectors, demolition men and steel pipe-line experts from Bethlehem Steel Co., which has the replacement contract, are setting up shop in a clearing deep in the woods near Hawley.

The crew will begin in about two weeks the replacement of the second half of the wood stave flow line from Pennsylvania's Power & Light Company's Lake Wallenpaupack to its hydroelectric power plant near Hawley.

The first half of the three and one-half-mile-long line was replaced with steel in 1956.

Again the company, as it did during the first-half change-over, is taking steps to keep the residents of the area, the owners of Summer cottages and the operators of recreational projects in the lake section fully informed of the work schedule and its expected effect on the water level of the big lake.

Next Month

Early next month, the task of replacing the wooden portion will begin with the line being drained of water and the power plant closed down until the project is completed in October.

With normal rainfall, the replacement work should cause little inconvenience to local people in the form of early-season low water.

The lowered water level will result from the company's using greater quantities than usual of lake water for hydroelectric generation just prior to the repair period.

It is essential that this be done so as to make a "hole" in the lake and thus provide adequate storage space for all of the new water inflow during the repair period. Otherwise, there would be a loss of water by overflow by the time the replacement project is completed.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Thoughts to waste a Spring morning by:

Those white blossoming things on the hillsides are shadblows—so named because they bloom when the shad are running, and the flowers later turn into juneberries.

If dandelions were more modest and content to stick close to the ground like violets, they too might be theme of poetry and song, because they're quite as handsome. But when they stick up above the lawn and make it look all over ends they give themselves a bad reputation.

Nominating committees who wait until May to try to fill a slate of officers run into rock-like and inequivalent "No!" By this time every possible candidate is fed up to the teeth with organizations and quite weary of well-doing.

One of the saddest sights of Springtime is to see the sections of a snow-split apple tree blooming their heads off just as if there was any hope that they would live long enough to have apples.

The dazzling white of new white bucks on the boys and new sneakers for the girls keep you from noticing anything else they have on and leave a lasting impression that the homecoming school crowd is nothing but feet.

The clothes that are the most fun to buy are those for little girls from two to four, and mothers of grown children and mothers of little boys always look a bit wistful as they linger by those racks.

Well, there's two hours lost out of this day—the one we spent dragging up those, and the one we'll lose when we turn the clock ahead. Back? Oh, no ahead! Spring ahead. Fall back. Or is it the other way?

Fashions, Talents In PTA Show

A combined fashion and talent show will be presented on Wednesday, May 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Stroud Union High School under the auspices of the Morey Parent-Teachers Assn. Funds from the show will be used to complete the funds for playground equipment for pupils of Morey School. This is the final project for the year.

Service as models will be students, parents and teachers, and the clothes will be from Wyckoff's. The show will have as its theme, "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" with a sleeping princess dreaming of summer plans and the clothes she'll be wearing on the golf course, swimming pool, picnics, fishing and parties.

Talent will include dances, songs and skits, including a novelty dance of the Charleston of the 20's with today's sack look. Mrs. Robert White and Mrs. William Clark are co-chairmen for tickets; Mrs. Thomas Dennis, assisted by George Palmer and Mrs. John Stokes; decorations; Mrs. Lester Bowers and Mrs. Joseph Yutz, prizes.

Music for the fashion show will be furnished by Ernest Michelfelder at the organ. Miss Alice Bellairs and the Morey school chorus will sing. Other children who wish to participate in the talent division are to call Mrs. Daniel Miller, chairman of the Talent Committee.

The Program Equipment project was begun last year, and the committee hopes that this will complete the needed funds. Edward Rahn is head of the Playground Equipment Committee and Mrs. Stephen Stollinski is chairman of ways and means. Mrs. Robert Miller is general chairman of the Fashion-Talent Show.

The show is open to the general public and tickets may be obtained from any member of the Morey PTA.

Progress In Mental Health Reported By Dr. Fiedler At Sorooptimists

An aroused community started the series of changes which have transformed mental hospitals from places of custodial care to places for rehabilitation of the mentally ill. An informed and interested community can make that change even more effective.

That was the gist of the challenge which Dr. Howard F. Fiedler, superintendent of the Allentown State Hospital presented at the meeting of Sorooptimists Inc., Stroudsburg, on Thursday night at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

He cited the Monroe County Mental Health Assn. as an instance of this public interest, and praised the strides made during the first year of its organization here.

Even so short a time as ten years ago, only 40 per cent of those admitted had a chance to ever come out again. Today 80 per cent stand a good chance of returning to normal productive living, he said, within a year and many within three months.

"It costs $75,000 to care for a mentally ill person for a lifetime. Multiply that by 50,000 patients and the cost is staggering."

Local Clinics Help

One of the big strides has been the establishment of small psychiatric clinics in general hospitals. Many of the mentally ill need treatment rather than hospital care, he said. He cited the Bethlehem Clinic which last year cared for 330 patients, of whom only 9 needed to be referred to the state hospital.

Another major change has been intercommunication of hospital and community, he said. Where in the past mentally ill were put in confinement and forgotten, now every effort is being made to treat patients as people and keep them close to the community to which they must return.

New Treatment, Too

The community aroused by the "Snake Pit" type of mental hospital, started the revolution in mental hospital care. New treatments also helped speed cures: Insulin shock, used in 1932, electrical shock in 1939, helped but the big surge has come within the past three years with the discovery of tranquilizers.

"Three years ago the drug bill for the year was $200; today it is $5,000. But in that period the patient population at Allentown State Hospital has been reduced from 2,100 to 1,600," he said despite the growing incidence of mental illness in the general population.

What to do with patients, some of them forgotten there for 15 years, who through these new treatments and drugs were cured led to the establishment of the social service department where the patient ready to be discharged could receive counseling for his future.

New Relationships

Vocational rehabilitation helps them with job opportunities. And they are further prepared by the new policy of open doors. The policy was not established without certain public furor, he admitted.

During the first month, the hospital's 47 patients went AWOL, and there was great public indignation. During the second month of the policy, the hospital lost 27 patients temporarily. But that Easter 150 families asked if relatives could come home for Easter vacation, a revolutionary step forward.

Since then, about seven patients a month walk off, but most of them come back of their own accord.

Hospital personnel has also been merged with the community, and make their homes outside the hospital, freeing 133 beds for patients.

Not only do patients and personnel have outside contact with the community, but the community in growing numbers has contact with the hospital. Volunteers in the Gray Ladies Service, from church groups, from civic organizations are being trained and contributing much to the rehabilitation program, by giving the patients an opportunity to deal with people, a more effective therapy even than miracle drugs.

Volunteers Serve

He predicted 700 volunteers would be serving the hospital within a few years. On the hospital budget, he must meet the basic needs of the patients; a trained and competent staff, helpful surroundings, and good diet. Luxuries still must come from voluntary contributions, he said.

A clothing room, magazines, pianos are some of the contributions made recently, he said, and praised Monroe County for having contributed the bulk of the typewriters for that new project.

Dr. Fiedler also discussed briefly the plight of the children three years ago with the present set-up. The mental hospital should not be saddled with defective children but with the mentally ill child. He also touched on the problem of senility, which often could better be treated on a local level.

He invited the public to attend the open house to be held at the hospital on Wednesday, April 30. "Your biggest chance to help these people is through your own Mental Health Assn.," he said, "which needs not only your interest but your active support as well."

William Clark, chairman of Mental Health Week, was a guest at the meeting, held in the Regina Suite of the hotel. Mrs. Lulu Harvey, president, presided at the business meeting which followed Dr. Fiedler's talk.

Local Women Active In Regional Guild

Mrs. Frederick Quig of Stroudsburg ended her term as president of the Mountain Regional Guild of the United Church of Christ at the 17th annual Spring meeting held in Jacob's United Church of Christ, Weissport on Tuesday, April 22. Mrs. Lester Houck of Bangor was elected president of the group.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Harold Young, first vice president; Mrs. Mel Dunn, Stroudsburg, second vice president; Mrs. Richard Drunkenbrod, secretary; and Mrs. Paul Hartzell, treasurer.

The opening worship was conducted by Mrs. Walter Long, Tannersville, with Mrs. George Bickel as organist. Mrs. Madlyn Anglemeyer, president of the host guild, gave the welcome with the response given by Mrs. Clementine Croasdale, Stroudsburg.

Mrs. George Sampson, Ebensburg, former Regional President, was a guest at the meeting. Reports were given including a report of the Quadrennial meeting held in St. Louis by Mrs. Houck.

Departmental reports were presented in pageant form, "Our Witness in God's World" with Mrs. Harold Young of Bangor as narrator. Each department chairman placed a symbol of the work of her department on the altar. Reporting were Mrs. Mel Dunn, Mrs. Fred Anglemeyer, Mrs. G. Robert Booth, Mrs.

Families To Present Service

Effort — A Family Day service will be held at the Effort Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with church families presenting the service. The Verdon Frailley family will lead the devotions.

A hymn sing will be conducted by Walter Sebring. Families from five churches will present vocal or instrumental music. Represented will be McMichael's, Reiders, Tannersville, Wesley Chapel, Effort and St. Luke's.

In addition there will be a program by the Polk Township Bible Club, from Middle Creek Ev. Church and the Evangelical Church, Northampton. This will be the last meeting at which the pastor, Rev. LeRoy Bernard, will be present since he is retiring on April 30. There will be no sermon.

Stanley Dunning, Mrs. E. S. Rosenberry and Mrs. Warren Helmy.

A fellowship luncheon was held when Rev. William Foote, superintendent of the Phoebe Home showed pictures of the Phoebe and Devitt Homes. Music during the afternoon featured Mrs. Jane Getz, Mrs. Jean Getz, Mrs. Peggy Hontz and Mrs. George Bickel.

Sketches of "His Kingdom in My Kitchen" were presented by the Stroudsburg group with Mrs. Herbert Yutz reading and Mrs. Mel Dunn sketching scenes from the life of a homemaker.

Split PTA Elects Officers To Serve East Stroudsburg

The East Stroudsburg Parent-Teachers Assn. in the final meeting of the group as a unit, elected officers to serve the two PTA groups into which it has been divided. They were installed by Mrs. David Mazer, past president of the County PTA Council.

President of the Elementary School PTA is Dr. Mary Hunsicker; with Robert Staples, vice president; Mrs. John Powell, secretary; and Joseph Rine, treasurer.

The Junior-Senior High School

PTA officers elected included Seymour Ellawick, vice president; Mrs. Jack Kist, secretary, and Mrs. Eleanor Randolph, treasurer. The office of president will be filled at a later date.

Mrs. William Palmer, president, presided at the meeting. Dr. John Abbruzzese, county school psychologist, introduced by Gerald Fritz spoke on "Special Education".

Main categories for special education are the mentally handicapped, the physically handicapped, and it also includes the mentally gifted children, he explained. Special education classes have been authorized by the state, and are limited to 18 children to a class.

He explained the difference between educable and trainable children. The trainable child, with the inability to learn normal school subjects, is put in a completely separate class. The educable child who can learn but is slow in doing so can receive the help he needs through special education.

Newest project is the establishment of a protected workshop for pupils in need of its services after the age of 18. The program for special education in Monroe County is expanding, he said, listing the two speech therapists now serving the county schools. In the proposed new building, there will be three classrooms devoted to special education.

The major problem now in the county is the emotionally disturbed child, for whom there is no state aid available, he said.

Refreshments were served in the library by Mrs. Delbert France, Mrs. Ernest Christian, Mrs. Joseph Zacharias, Mrs. Ted Wilkins, Mrs. Harrison Place, Mrs. James Kester, Mrs. David Mazer, Mrs. Wendell Wicks and Mrs. Harvey Huffman.

The Wyckoff Shopper

The friendly store Wyckoff

'ROUND AND ABOUT WYCKOFF'S: Mrs. David Robins, one of the busy chairmen of the Hadassah Fashion Show at Tament Tuesday evening, June 17th, visits the store, accompanied by her pretty little daughter, to distribute posters and tickets. While Mother talks fashion show, Daughter makes a big hit with Tommy Rinehart, who is a great favorite with the children visiting Wyckoff's. . . Now I've seen everything—a salesman sampling his own merchandise because it is so new he finds it for the first time on display at our store. The salesman, Tony Zaffiro. The product, Keiller's new Coffee Candy, an addition to our favorite family of "sweet-hards." This new Keiller candy has a caramel coating, instead of the usual butterscotch, and is round rather than oblong. . . Shorty Widmer drops into WVPO to sing "Happy Birthday," joined by Dick Fredenberg, assistant manager of Sears, who discussed Sears Day Values on our Thursday program. This is my second round of musical greetings—my daughter having previously given a dramatic rendition in FRENCH! . . . And there are gifts! Jewelry, natch; beautiful mottled glassware in an indescribably lovely shade of blue; records, and the very table lamp I wanted, to complete a pair for my living room. These are truly "Happy Birthdays" at Wyckoff's! Elsie Miller of our candy department and Mary Brong of the Beauty Salon celebrated on the 23rd; while Marion Leedom celebrated on the 25th. Walter Wyckoff is gracious enough to say, "What a lovely 38!" (How I wish I were.) Carl Rohrbach stretches the point even further by saying, "Any day now you'll be SEVENTEEN." But another Pal (????) skids in the other direction by saying, "You really hold your age very well. Don't look a day over 55." Now all I need is one of those Contemporary Cards that show a dowager frantically placing candles on a huge, well-lighted cake, while the printed message pointedly demands, "Why don't you try the sides?"

Perhaps no one has told you about the Let 'Em Eat Crow party held by our Wyckoff sales force this week. I hear it was great fun. The store had been divided into two teams for the recent anniversary events, and the Robin vie with the Crocus to be the first arrival in our Younger than Springtime Sale. The Robins won—and ate steak. The Croci ate Crow Pie. (Actually chicken.)

Blanche Mackey seems to have spearheaded the entertainment committee. . . at least she was back of all the mayhem in which my poetry played a part. Dressed in leotards, topped by a headpiece resembling a worm, she served hors d'oeuvres as the guests arrived. And what an assortment she offered!—Fried grasshoppers, honeyed bees, crisp caterpillars, bird's nest soup, and all those other hideous concoctions one buys in cans at the grocery store. Squirming over the tray were some LIVE fishworms, so needless to say Blanche's offerings went begging. But the most fantastic feature of all was that several of the girls had valiantly tried to tie tiny blue bows around the worms' necks—if a worm may be said to have such a thing. They succeeded too. . . only to discover that the pesky fish bait slithered right out of them.

As for the actual food—THAT was delicious. But, being squeamish myself, after Blanche's welcome, how would anyone KNOW that?????

Daily Record Survey

Education Discipline Cause Of Concern

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of articles on Monroe County education. Each will be based on the results of the county-wide survey conducted by the author for The Daily Record.

By Leonard Randolph

NOT MANY people answering the education survey mention discipline in the schools. But the few who do feel that the whole issue of discipline for a student is next to impossible.

One classroom teacher says that it should be possible to take some disciplinary measure when a student is wrong, but it almost never is. "Somebody," the teacher says, "is sure to make a Federal case out of it."

There is an occasional objection to the way in which discipline is "run" in present school systems locally. This is generally a criticism of the manner in which policies are administered, however.

A number of teachers feel that administrators will not "back them up" on important issues—including matters of disciplining students.

In some cases it is difficult for the teacher (or a faculty committee responsible for such actions) to suspend a child. When the matter goes before the school board the suspension may be revoked.

The general consideration in this case involves the student's ability to play sports or some other extra-curricular activity. If he is a good football player, he seems likely to be exempt from suspension in some schools.

How important is discipline in modern education?

During the past two decades, we have heard less and less about it. The tendency has been to play down disciplinary action in the school system and to concentrate more freely on "letting the student adjust" to both situations and environment.

Although there was no specific question in the survey pertaining to discipline, educators included references to it voluntarily in answer to several questions. Some, for example, included opinions on this phase of education in answers on the improvement of instruction. Others include brief references to it in their answers to questions on administrative practices.

The issue appears to be more pertinent to this latter area of the survey, because many of the teachers mentioning discipline do not feel that their superiors will support them in any action they take.

These teachers point out that it is difficult enough to attempt to teach large groups of children in an overcrowded classroom. Lack of support of classroom policy (if there is one) makes it even more so.

It is in this area of administrative weakness that some teachers feel their major problem lies.

The teacher with courage goes right ahead doing what he feels is the right thing to do. If someone challenges him, he fights for his position—because he feels it is right.

A good many teachers have the feeling—rightly or wrongly—that their supervisors and school board members are ready and anxious to "pull the rug from under" them on ticklish matters.

It's tough to find any single element which is more demoralizing than that.

It is bad enough in a business office or a factory or a mine.

In a profession which depends, for its quality, on the amount of dedication of the individual to his ideals and his job and on the mutual respect of subordinate and superior, it can be disastrous.

18 Students Enter Into Honor Society

EIGHTEEN students of the junior and senior classes of East Stroudsburg High School Thursday were inducted into the National Honor Society of the school's chapter during a special student assembly.

The induction ceremonies were held at 1 p.m., and began with processional of honor society students in the academic gown.

Guest speaker for the program was Mrs. Kathleen Butz of the high school's English Department. In her address to the honor students, she pointed out that:

Courage
"To achieve intellectually and to be honest in this achievement require a high type of courage, just as do other fields of endeavor in which often the end results can be measured more accurately."

"The development of potential abilities, harnessed to worthy goals of character, service and leadership, is needed by every American citizen who will help build an orderly nation and world as well."

New members inducted include:

Seniors — Sylvia Faucett, Dorothy Heller, Ellen Mazer, Rosemary Mekeel, Patricia Muth, Deborah Peeney, Douglas Smith and Sue Wicks.

Juniors — Christopher Anderson, Donald Caulfield, William Kymer, Karen Metzger, Evan Reese, Eugenia Rushin, Marilyn Steiner, James Strunk, Gerald Walker and Harry Wilford.

Senior members who were inducted last year are: Elizabeth Gimbel, Victoria Hoehne, Eugene Martin, Joan Martin, Joan Marsh, Dorothy May, Anton Prechtel and Bruce Viechnicki.

Graydon Hoffman Honored At Elks 'Surprise Night'

GRAYDON D. HOFFMAN, past exalted ruler of East Stroudsburg Lodge of Elks, was given a most happy surprise on "Past Exalted Rulers Surprise Night" at the Elks Home Thursday when he was presented with a gold card emblematic of honorary life membership in the lodge.

Rev. Adan S. Bohner, chaplain of the lodge, presided as toastmaster during the banquet ceremonies, and Judge Fred W. Davis, the principal speaker, made the card presentation.

The Hoffman family is the only family in which three generations have served the East Stroudsburg Lodge of Elks as exalted rulers. Graydon's father, Theodore Y. Hoffman, a charter member, and his son, Theodore D. Hoffman, also served as exalted rulers.

Graydon has been an Elk for 46 years. He served as exalted ruler in 1916-17 and has been a trustee of the lodge for the past 20 years.

On the program, paying fitting tributes to Hoffman as an Elk, were Barney W. Wentz, past state president, past district deputy, and past exalted ruler of Ashland lodge past exalted rulers Montgomery F. Crowe, Lowell H. Cross, John R. Hausner and Ben K. Williams, and exalted ruler Clifford Fansen of the local lodge.

A hour of magic by Arthur Reichenbach, magician from Allentown, followed the steak dinner. Music during the night was furnished by Carl Gottler, accordionist.

Past exalted rulers B. K. Williams and H. L. Heberling and steward Floyd Lambert were acclaimed for the inspiration in proposing and efforts in promoting the surprise party.

STC Runners Set Mark, But Place 3rd

PHILADELPHIA — East Stroudsburg Teachers team broke the school record in the one mile relay run but finished third in the State Pennsylvania Teachers College Relay Championships at the Penn Relays here yesterday.

The Warriors of Howard De-Nike ran the mile in 3:28.2 to snap a mark of 3:31 set many years ago.

West Chester won the Teachers Classic with a 3:27 mark time, followed by Shippensburg.

Hill Runners

Running for ESSTC was Joe Simms, who raced his 440-yard stint in 32.5, followed by Don Greenwood who moved the "Hill" ahead with a 51.7. Jack Sellers dropped to third with a 53 second grind, and Lew Murdoch ran the last 440 in 51 seconds.

Hickman, 46, Dies Victim Of Ulcers

WASHINGTON — Herman Hickman, the massive football coach who parlayed his Tennessee drawl, quick wit and remarkable memory into a television-radio career, died Friday.

At 46, the jovial coach-poet-commentator was the victim of a stomach ulcer and internal complications.

(Editors Note—Hickman appeared in the area on many occasions as a speaker and staff member of Marty Baldwin's Eastern Pennsylvania Coaches Clinic.)

Hickman died at Providence Hospital, which he entered March 28 after suffering a gastric ulcer attack in nearby Maryland while driving to Florida with Mrs. Hickman for a visit with his mother.

Both wife and mother were at his bedside when death came. So were two pals—Toots Shor, the New York restaurateur and sports addict, and Dave Driscoll, a business associate.

Hickman quit coaching at Yale in the summer of 1952 for a public relations job. He was already a TV personality, a spinner of yarns and quoter of poetry — some his own — on a quiz show panel.

Breaks Record

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — Murray Randall, Westfield, N.J., senior, smashed a 39-year-old Lehigh University track record when he ran the mile in 4:26.4 during a triangular meet with Pennsylvania and Rutgers this Spring.

The old mark of 4:32.6 was set in 1919 by the late Philip L. McGrath.

Clemente Spraks Pirates To 4-3 Win Over Redlegs

CINCINNATI — Roberto Clemente got in on all the Pittsburgh Pirate scoring last night, including his three-run homer in the seventh inning that helped sink Cincinnati's Redlegs, 4-3.

Pirate starter Vernon Law had to call on Elroy Face in the eighth to save the victory.

Redleg starter Harvey Haddix, who took the loss had steady work putting down uprisings in the first six innings, and finally fell apart in the seventh.

The big Pirate rally started when Haddix doled out walks to Bob Skinner and Ted Kluszewski. Then came Clemente's big blow. Willard Schmidt finished up for Cincinnati.

Also elected were Lewis J. Bruchel, vice president and Walter Cowling, treasurer and John Dorsey, secretary.

Ralph Albert, league chairman, acted as toastmaster at the affair attended by 55 bowlers. Guests included Clyde W. Hulsizer, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge, John L. Williams, secretary, Robert Bartlett and Joseph Capozzola. James Drury offered invocation.

Team prizes, in the order of squads captained by Earl Williams, Harold Pysker, Idris Williams, Sherwood Holland, Lester Henning, Earl Hocking, Ralph Albert, James Capozzola, Kilbourne Roberts and Walter Cowling.

Recognition was given Earl Williams' team for the high season's match, 2675; Pysker's team for the high single, 946; to Henning, high individual triple, 632, and Roberts, high individual game, 256.

James Capozzola was given recognition for having the best season's average—184.46. He will receive a trophy from the Bangor Bowling Assn. at its banquet in the Blue Valley Farm Show building May 17.

Others who finished in top positions for high averages were Henning, 179.50; Roberts, 176.55; Hocking, 175.49 and Idris Williams, 174.59.

The roll-off was won by Henning's team, clinching the loops season, it was announced.

Ramos Masters Red Sox, 2-0

BOSTON — Poised Pedro Ramos fattened his winning record against Boston by pitching Washington to a 2-0 victory Friday, while former Red Sox players Albie Pearson and Norm Zaichin furnished the offensive punch with run-scoring singles.

Ramos, the Cuban right-hander who appears to own the Sox, limited his victims to six hits while extending his lifetime record over Boston to 13-5. Washington 000 000-2 7 1 Boston 000 000-0 6 1 Ramos and Courtney Baumann, Wall (8) and White, L. Baumann.

PML Opens Season Tomorrow

Four Games Are Scheduled In Inaugurals Of 'A' Loop

THE POCONO Mountain Baseball League will kick-off its 1958 season tomorrow with inaugurals at four diamonds.

The opening day schedule has Analomink at Reeders, Barrett at West End, Lake Harmony at Tannersville, and Saylorburg at Kunkletown.

Lake Harmony is the league's defending champions, having won the regular season and playoff crowns a year ago.

It will be the first time in a few years that the circuit has operated with eight teams. In 1957 the PML had 10 entries. However, the Strouds of Stroudsburg and Bushkill dropped out of the loop following the campaign.

Expects Banner Year
President Clint Getz, of Lake Harmony, expects the league to have a banner year this season. "All clubs are sound financially and have good leadership," the PML prexy said.

A 21-game slate for each team has been drawn up with regular season play continuing to Aug. 31. Games, for the most part are Sunday contests, with holiday features on tap for Memorial Day (May 31) and the Fourth of July.

It was announced that Kunkletown will play its home games on the West End field at Gilbert, and that Analomink will use Gordon Giffels Field, Stroudsburg, as its home base.

Officials, Pilots

Officials in the league besides Getz are John Wernett, Saylorburg; John Eller, Stroudsburg; Henry Weiss, Broadheads; Clarence Smith, Kunkletown; Graydon Praetorius, Saylorburg; Norman Warner, Reeders; and Mike Renaldo, Roseto.

Managers of teams are Gib Bachman, Tannersville; Bob Hawk, Barrett; Bob Bonser, Saylorburg; Mel (Bub) Bush, Analomink; Blaine Singer, Reeders; Lloyd Deltz, Lake Harmony; Dave Paynter, West End; and Dick Seifass, Kunkletown.

Works-Diehl's Plan Practice

STROUDSBURG Engine Works-Diehl's Tire Service softball team will hold a workout tomorrow at the East Stroudsburg playground diamond, starting at 1:30 p.m.

Runs Next Week
Action will continue in the team event through Wednesday night; doubles will be on Thursday and Friday, May 1 and 2, and singles will be Saturday, May 3.

Engine Smasher
BETHLEHEM, Pa. — Fred Kreibiel, Elizabeth, N.J., junior, broke a 30-year-old Lehigh University track record when he ran the two-mile in 10:02.3 during a triangular meet with Pennsylvania and Rutgers this Spring. The old mark of 10:07.5 was set in 1928 by Donald Aitken.

Snider Out Of Doghouse

LOS ANGELES — Duke Snider got in and out of the Dodger doghouse in just 24 hours. After he hurt his right elbow in some horseplay Wednesday, he was ordered off the payroll until he was in condition to play again.

But he lost only one day's pay — for Wednesday night's game — because he was back in the starting lineup Thursday.

Manager Walt Alton said Snider told him his arm hurt somewhat but he felt he was in condition to play, "so I'm going to let him play."

Snider got the elbow injury when he and infielder Don Zimmer engaged in a pre-game contest to see whether they could throw a baseball over the Coliseum rim, which is 79 rows and 106 feet up. Snider couldn't quite make it, although he pegged up to row 76. On another try he got a pain in his elbow.

Dr. Robert Woods said the injury did not appear to be serious. Snider went home to Long Beach and nursed it with an electric warming bandage.

Alton and General Manager E. J. "Buzzy" Bavasi went into a tizzy when they heard about it. Then came the order that he was to pay off until in condition to play again. Jim Gilliam played left field Wednesday night when the Chicago Cubs beat the Dodgers 7-6.

At a reported $42,500 a year salary, the one-game stay in the doghouse figures out to a penalty of about $275.

Alton said that although Zimmer did not hurt himself he was fining him $25. He also fined pitcher Ed Roebuck $25 for some pre-game monkey business of hitting balls into the stands at the far end where there were no customers.

PENNSYLVANIA AMATEUR KING—Elmer Possinger of Stroudsburg was declared the Pennsylvania Outboard Motorboat Amateur champion of 1957. Possinger, who picked up points for the title in streaking home first in many races, is shown with his trophies and two boats. By winning the amateur crown, Possinger has been cited by being allowed to use the "number 1" on his racing machine during the 1958 campaign. (Staff Photo by Randolph)

Woodling Hit Dumps Yanks

BALTIMORE — Pinch hitter Gene Woodling's double with two outs in the ninth inning scored two runners and pulled out a 2-1 victory for the Baltimore Orioles over the New York Yankees last night.

Woodling's game ending blast against his former team came with two strikes on him by pitcher Whitey Ford. The opportunity was set up on an error by Yankee shortstop Gil McDougald on Dick Williams' grounder to open the Oriole ninth.

The team event will consist of 29 teams, three more than last year. Winners of the event will receive small individual trophies for each member of the winning team and a large trophy for the sponsor.

Al Besecker's In Exhibition
AL Besecker's Diner will meet Courtland Beverage-Curt Dunn Cafe in a softball exhibition game tomorrow at the CLU Club field, starting at 2 p.m.

Pike County Republicans To Meet

DINGMANS FERRY — Mrs. Archie Christian has announced that a meeting of the Republican Club of Pike County will be held at the Ann Street Grange Hall, Milford, next Wednesday at 8 p.m. At that time the State Committee of Wayne County will address the group, and all candidates for local offices, who will be running in the primaries, have been invited to attend.

Mrs. Christian, who was formerly Republican County Committeewoman in Roselle Park, N. J., was recently appointed corresponding secretary for this new political organization in Pike County.

Van Zandt Airs Views

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) said yesterday unemployment in the nation's 149 labor surplus areas now represents nearly 60 per cent of all unemployment in the country.

"This unemployment in these labor surplus areas is chronic and must be treated separately from the national unemployment problem which has seasonal characteristics," Van Zandt said in a House speech. The only solution, he said, is passage of distressed area legislation under bi-partisan sponsorship.

Army Lists Recruiting Program

SGT. DONALD K. Smith, area Army Recruiter, announced yesterday that he is now accepting applications from high school seniors and high school graduates for schooling under the Army's guaranteed school program.

The sergeant stated that more than 127 schools are available at the present time and that anyone making application now would be enlisted during the months of July, August or September.

Prior servicemen in the area interested in re-enlisting may qualify for openings that now exist at the Tobyhanna Signal Depot.

For further information contact Sgt. Smith at the Stroudsburg Post Office on Tuesdays or Thursdays or phone 5347 on these days.

Retirement Center Dedicated

DELAND, Fla. (AP)—The Florida Lutheran Retirement Center, a project of the Augustana Lutheran Church, was dedicated yesterday.

The ceremonies were part of the 68th annual convention of the New York Conference comprising the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, Virginia, Florida, and the District of Columbia.

Combination Services

DURBAN (AP)—A religious service and pagan rites to scare away evil spirits were combined for the opening of a new coal mine in northern Natal. An African minister prayed for the safety of the miners. Meantime, an African foreman killed a goat in the pagah ceremony and scattered portions throughout the mine.

June Draft 688
HARRISBURG (AP)—State selective service headquarters yesterday fixed Pennsylvania's June draft call at 688 men. All must be at least 22 years of age.
